

Pattern Rescue Ladder

One player should play or sing the patterns, and the second player covers them up until you have filled the whole ladder. Looking for game pieces? Try pennies, cheerios, buttons, or any other small object you have around your house. Once one player gets to the top of the pattern ladder, switch roles and have someone else play or sing the patterns.

