Your child will likely accept reminders from your teacher more easily than from you. Know that your teacher is watching and aware of good hand and body positions. Your teacher will correct position and offer reminders at the most teachable moments.

This is one of the advantages to the group format in early instruction. Your teacher can make numerous and effective reminders to the entire group so that individual students do not feel "nagged".

My Music Bucks Wallet

Color one coin for each 10 minutes of practice that you do
One stack of coins is 100 minutes!
